

It's ou Its?

Utilisez it's ou its pour compléter les phrases:

1. My daughter has a baby. _____ a girl.
2. When _____ time for bed, the baby always cries.
3. _____ difficult learning English.
4. The horse broke _____ leg.
5. _____ ears are infected. That dog needs to go to the vet.
6. Do you like my car? _____ motor is really fast.
7. Did the teacher say that _____ okay to go outside?
8. The tire is losing _____ air.
9. My telephone is using _____ battery very fast.
10. _____ important to me.

CORRECTIONS

It's ou Its?

Utilisez it's ou its pour compléter les phrases:

1. My daughter has a baby. ___ It's _____ a girl.
2. When ___ it's _____ time for bed, the baby always cries.
3. ___ It's _____ difficult learning English.
4. The horse broke ___ its _____ leg.
5. ___ Its _____ ears are infected. That dog needs to go to the vet.
6. Do you like my car? ___ Its _____ motor is really fast.
7. Did the teacher say that ___ it's _____ okay to go outside?
8. The tire is losing ___ its _____ air.
9. My telephone is using ___ its _____ battery very fast.
10. ___ It's _____ important to me.