

To / Two / Too

Three words with the same pronunciation but different meanings.

TO (preposition)

TO is a preposition that shows movement.

Example:

We're going to the restaurant.

TO shows the infinitive form of a verb.

Example: I want to eat chocolate ice cream.

Too (adverb)

TOO is an adverb that can mean excessively.

Example:

I ate too much pizza.

TOO means "also," "as well," or "additionally."

Example:

I want a hamburger too.

Two (Number)

TWO is simply the number 2.

Examples:

I ordered two slices of pizza.

I have two sisters.

Exercise: Choose the correct word (to, too, two) to complete the sentences.

- 1) I'm going _____ a party tonight.
- 2) Can I come _____?
- 3) Of course. Could you bring a bottle of wine or _____?
- 4) No problem. I will go _____ the shops now.
- 5) Ok could you buy some flowers _____?

CORRECTIONS: Choose the correct word (to, too, two) to complete the sentences.

- 1) I'm going ____TO____ a party tonight.
- 2) Can I come ___TOO_____?
- 3) Of course. Could you bring a bottle of wine or ____TWO_____?
- 4) No problem. I will go __TO_____ the shops now.
- 5) Ok could you buy some flowers ___TOO_____?