

must, mustn't, should or shouldn't

Use must, mustn't, should or shouldn't to complete the sentences

You _____ wake up early to go to school.

They _____ visit the downtown museum.

I _____ be more careful with my things.

I _____ go to the supermarket. I have no food!

I _____ study more to get a better grade.

She _____ move somewhere else if she doesn't like this town.

He _____ quit cooking classes, he is such a bad cook!

You _____ know about the rules of the game.

We _____ smoke here. It is against the law.

Jean - Luc _____ arrive soon.

Karen _____ forget about her meeting next week. It is very important

Students _____ practice exercises many times to get good at learning a language.

You really _____ do that. It's not very nice.

I _____ forget my passport when I go on holidays next week.

CORRECTIONS

must, mustn't, should or shouldn't

Use must, mustn't, should or shouldn't to complete the sentences

You must wake up early to go to school.

They should visit the downtown museum.

I should be more careful with my things.

I must go to the supermarket. I have no food!

I should study more to get a better grade.

She should move somewhere else if she doesn't like this town.

He should quit cooking classes, he is such a bad cook!

You must know about the rules of the game.

We mustn't smoke here. It is against the law.

Jean - Luc should arrive soon.

Karen mustn't forget about her meeting next week. It is very important

Students should practice exercises many times to get good at learning a language.

You really shouldn't do that. It's not very nice.

I mustn't forget my passport when I go on holidays next week.